

Each TBRA recipient must have specific policies regarding what is and is not allowable as a medical or dental expense. Recipients may create their own guidelines or may use the IRS guidance available at the following link:

Link to Dental and Medical Expenses

<http://www.irs.gov/publications/p502/index.html>

The policy must be included in the recipient's administrative plan.